

THE ONTARIO CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION
INVITES APPLICATIONS FOR THE
HARRY C. MAYNARD SCHOLARSHIPS IN CLASSICS
2022

Through the generosity of the late Harry Maynard, for many years a teacher of Classics at the University of Toronto Schools, a program of scholarship assistance for students of Classics has been inaugurated by the Trustees of Mr. Maynard's estate. By arrangement with the Trustees, the Ontario Classical Association has undertaken to advertise the scholarship program, to receive applications and to assess applicants. Awards will be made by the Trustees on the recommendation of the Association.

The Trustees reserve the right to make no award and to alter or deviate from the stated number and approximate value.

Please note that the Ontario Classical Association will not make any award itself and that there is no set amount for any award; the amounts and number of the awards vary from one year to the next.

N.B. Because of the current pandemic, Covid 19, this year's awards will not be connected to travel abroad for high school or for university applicants. Awards are intended to support the recipients' study of Latin, ancient Greek, and Classics. All other requirements below apply.

The Harry C. Maynard Scholarship in Classical Studies

Approximate Value: In the past, awards have ranged from approximately $2000 - $3500.

Open to an undergraduate student who is attending an Ontario University and proceeding to a first degree in Classics. Preference will be given to applicants studying both Latin and Classical Greek at the Honours level.

The Harry C. Maynard Scholarship (Secondary)

Approximate value: In the past, awards have ranged from approximately $1000 - $2000.

For a secondary school student attending an Ontario high school, and currently enrolled in a credit-bearing course in Latin or ancient Greek.

Eligibility:

- * All applicants must be currently attending an Ontario University or Ministry-recognized Ontario Secondary School. All applicants must be domiciled in Ontario.
- * All University applicants must provide proof of enrollment in a program leading to a designated undergraduate degree (Honours or Major) in Classics or Classical Studies as of November 1, 2022.
- * All Secondary students must provide proof of current enrollment in one or more credit courses in Latin or ancient Greek as of November 1, 2022.
- * Previous winners of university Maynard Scholarships are not eligible to reapply. Winners of the Harry C. Maynard Scholarship (Secondary) may apply for the university scholarship.
- * Successful applicants may be asked to provide their Social Insurance Numbers to the Trustees in order to receive prize money.

Completed applications must be e-mailed or uploaded online no later than November 1st, 2022. No application will be considered without the following:

- * a complete, certified transcript of the applicant's academic record;
- * a short essay on the stated topic;
- * supporting letters from at least two people well acquainted with the applicant's work.

(Please see the accompanying instructions for details.)

Application Procedure:

Transcripts:

University applicants should have a certified transcript of all courses taken to date e-mailed from their home institution to the address below (or, preferably, uploaded via the OCA web site), along with official confirmation of their Classics programme (e.g., from the Registrar, Dean). Students in their first year who have not yet completed a course should send an official statement outlining their current program signed by a competent authority (e.g., Registrar, Dean) together with a certified transcript of their high school record.

Secondary school applicants should have sent to the address below a certified transcript of their high school record and a certified Credit Summary Sheet (or similar document) outlining their current program (i.e, that they are taking Latin / ancient Greek in this school year) signed by a competent school authority.

References:

Letters of recommendation from two people well acquainted with the applicant's academic work, at least one of whom must be a professor or teacher of Latin / Classics, must be sent along with the application and essay directly by the reference to the address below (the file name must identify the student) – this can be done by e-mail to maynard@ontarioclassicalassociation.ca or using the web site portal.

Essay:

Applicants must enclose with their completed application form a coherent, original essay of between 800 and 1000 words on the following topic (see attached instructions):

“Why do you feel it is important to study Latin and Classics in the 21st Century - why are you studying in the field, and why do you personally believe it is important to continue to learn about the Classical world today?”

Any external materials used in constructing this essay must be properly cited according to MLA convention, including a proper Works Consulted - submissions may be submitted to confirmation of academic honesty.

Further information is outlined in the attached instructions.

Completed application forms must be sent to the address below by NOVEMBER 1ST, 2022, together with all required supporting documentation. All applications must be received electronically, including the reference letters.

 In order to submit your application electronically, you now have 2 options:

Please be advised that security cannot be assured when sending this information electronically.

Please send essays (only one copy) as below. References must send letters as PDF's and identify them with your name.

Essay Instructions:

Your essay must address the following topic:

Essay Topic:

“Why do you feel it is important to study Latin and Classics in the 21st Century - why are you studying in the field, and why do you personally believe it is important to continue to learn about the Classical world today?”

Any external materials used in constructing this essay must be properly cited according to MLA convention, including a proper Works Consulted - submissions may be submitted to confirmation of academic honesty.

- Your essay must be between 800 and 1000 words in length (as counted by the computer), including the introduction and conclusion (but not counting the Works Consulted or Bibliography). Please indicate the word count in the header of the essay.
- You must include a Works Consulted or Bibliography, following a recognized format (such as MLA or APA). Only include works you actually use in informing your essay (including works not actually consulted will impact the mark.)
- You must provide proper citation for any information you use which is not your own.
- You are meant to include personal voice in this essay (and may use “I” where appropriate).
- The essay is meant to reflect your endeavor to express why the study of Classical languages and cultures is personally relevant to you; assessors will look for persuasive argument and clarity of expression. You are also meant to demonstrate significant independent critical analysis of the topic, personal thought, and sophisticated insight.
- Your essay must be typed and double spaced in 12-point Times New Roman (or similar) font.
- Ensure that your essay has a title page indicating the word count and the scholarship for which you are applying.
- Please identify your essay with your name and school / university only on the title page.
- You must number the pages.
- PLEASE SUBMIT 1 COPY OF YOUR ESSAY by NOVEMBER 1st, 2022 (everything must be sent / uploaded by November 1st, 2022).
